Senior Play Cast

Senior Class Will of '52

Jimmy Rainey wills his ability to show off to Bill Boswell providing he won't wear such good clothes.

Tommy Apple wills his typewriter to Eugene Baker provided he will get off a lesson once in a while.

Pauline Tate wills her friendliness to Shirley Aldridge.

Doris Allred wills her ability to play basketball to Shirley Page provided she will practice once in a lifetime.

Ruby Allred leaves her good times in Home Ec. to Von Minor.

Wilma Byrd leaves her basketball suit to Frances Knight provided she will fit it.

William Compton leaves Bus No. 13 to anyone crazy enough to drive it.

Alice Simpson and Lois Massey leave their place in study hall to Virginia Somers and Margaret Rudd provided they won't try to skip.

Marie Boswell and Harry Underwood will their quietness to Shirley Page and Monroe Gwynn.

Nettie Rice leaves her French talk to Frances Fitch.

Baxter Foushee leaves his school bus to Calvin Kimbro.

Leona Simmons wills her height to Evelyn Page.

Mary Elizabeth King wills her ability to study to Frances Fitch.

Betty Rice leaves her ability to get along with people to Von Minor.

Kenneth Montgomery leaves his place on the basketball team to Hildred Davis if he practices enough to get on the team.

Lola Mae Strange wills her proper talking to Louise Campbell.

Garland Strader wills his height to Roy Somers to his success in life.

Shirley Butler leaves her place as teacher's pet to Pauline Priddy provided she can get along with the teachers.

Elsie Fitch leaves Margaret Rudd her ability to draw.

Syloma Smith leaves her habit of twisting her hair to Carolyn McKinney and hopes she can correct it.

Thomas Webster leaves his well-groomed hair to Ervin Simmons.

Nancy Frazier wills her ability to sing to Alvin Roberts.

George Byrd leaves his secret smoking place to Hildred Davis.

Tommy Pattillo wills his position on the ball teams to Melvin Page.

Irvin Aldridge leaves his place as best all-around student to whoever works hard enough to deserve it.

Ervin Miles wills his good times skipping school to Roy Somers.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of 1952, do set seal on this, the thirtieth day of May in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Two.

Prophecy

It seems to me that the class prophecy is always a means of flattering, complimenting and scattering everybody's dreams. We always mix a portion of gossip, imagination and falsification into a pot and stir it. In this case, I, Nancy Frazier, chief cook, pick up a spoon.

Elsie Fitch, famed mind reader and fortune teller of Caswell and vicinity, pops up first. She has kept up with every happening since our graduation back in 1952. I will relate these events exactly as she has told them to me.

William Compton has become widely known for his famous television show. The former Shirley Butler, a graduate from Woman's College, is the wife and acting secretary of William.

Irvin Massey was noted in high school for his laughing at William's jokes. As a carry-over from the old days, he sits in Page Town and watches William on television.

Baxter Foushee is a well-known quack doctor, touring the countries—because he has been run out of all of the cities. Acting as his nurse is Lois Massey, who always carries the first aid kit that she won in a box top contest.

Garland Strader and Harry Underwood are joint owners of a big garage between Burlington and Reidsville.

A new Anderson High School Building has just been completed, and Mary E. King, the first woman President has come to North Carolina to dedicate this building. Miss King sends out so many vetoes that it keeps her record-breaking stenographers, Alice Simpson and Marie Boswell, constantly on the go.

Lola Mae Strange is still trying to hook Hildred and is teaching English at the Alma Mater just as a pastime.

Ruby Allred is happily married to one of her many high school boy friends.

Doris Allred is singing with Thomas Webster and his famous band in New York City.

Tommy Pattillo is married and is helping Mr. McKinney on his farm.

Syloma Smith is a famous black-face comedienne in Hollywood.

Nancy Frazier is married to Larry at last and is now living in San Diego, California.

Kenneth Montgomery is an athletic director somewhere in the East.

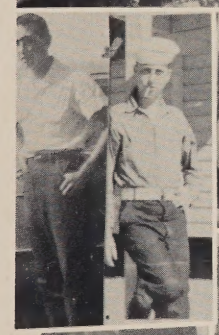
Wilma Byrd and Jimmy Rainey are married, and together they have built a big business in Greensboro.

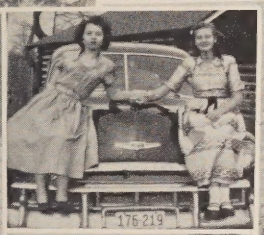
We heard that Pauline Tate got her man, and they flew to Europe for their honeymoon in a plane from Cobb Airlines. Betty Rice is air hostess for this well-known company.

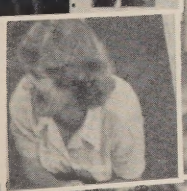
Nettie Rice is working and living in Salt Lake City, Utah. George Byrd and Ervin Miles are co-owners of a poolroom in Burlington, named "The Mighty 40." Tommy Apple is vice-president of an agricultural college in Raleigh where Dr. Irvin Aldridge is president.

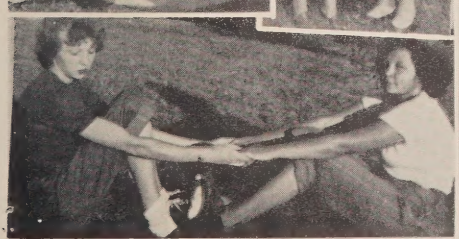
Leona Simmons is a nurse in Duke Hospital in Durham.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of 1952, do set seal on this, the thirtieth day of May in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Two.









JUNIORS

"Junior Class History"

Three years ago a group of anxious students entered Anderson High School. These "wide-eyed" students were members of the future Class of '53. After getting acquainted, it was decided that the sea was calm enough for them to start their journey. They launched out upon the "Sea of Knowledge" with Mrs. Grubbs and Mr. Green, the skippers of a crew of thirty-six.

The voyage was rough, for at the beginning of the second year's journey, there were only thirty members of the crew named "53." Mrs. Walker guided the ship safely through. On this trip, the crew chose the class colors, motto, and flower. This second year seemed to be even more severe than the first, for at the close of this year, nine of the crew had given up the ship.

Miss Webster was to be the new skipper for this year, and under her leadership, they captured a prisoner from Cobb—Jimmie Keatts. Finally, the long-wished-for moment arrived—the receiving of the class rings.

Last, but not least, the most important launching is ahead—the time when they shall honor the Seniors with the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet. It is the wish of each member of the crew that the Seniors will enjoy this important event.
